2 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

4 CHRISTOPHER S. HUNTER,

5 Plaintiff,

6 v.

7 CLARK COUNTY DETENTION CENTER,
8 et al.,

9 Defendants.

Case No. 2:14-cv-01560-APG-VCF

ORDER (1) GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART DEFENDANT
NAPHCARE, INC.'S MOTION TO DISMISS AND (2) REFERRING THIS CASE TO THE PRO BONO PROGRAM

(ECF No. 26)

10 Defendant Naphcare, Inc. (erroneously sued as Napha Healthcare) moves to dismiss
11 plaintiff Christopher S. Hunter's two claims against it. First, Naphcare argues that Hunter's
12 Eighth Amendment deliberate indifference claim should be dismissed because the amended
13 complaint alleges only negligence, not deliberate indifference. Second, Naphcare argues that 14 Hunter's claim that his privacy rights were violated when Naphcare discussed his medical
15 condition and drew his blood in front of other inmates fails to state a claim under the Fourth
16 Amendment.

17 Hunter responds by agreeing to dismiss his Eighth Amendment claim. ECF No. 47 at 3-4.
18 However, he contends that his privacy claim is based on the Fourteenth Amendment, not the 19 Fourth Amendment.

20 I grant Naphcare's motion to dismiss the Eighth Amendment claim as unopposed because 21 Hunter agrees to dismissal. See ECF No. 7-2(d). Moreover, I already dismissed this claim with 22 prejudice in my prior screening order. See ECF No. 11 at 6-7.

23 I deny Naphcare's motion to dismiss Hunter's privacy claim. Naphcare treats the claim as 24 one under the Fourth Amendment. However, as my screening order and Hunter's opposition
25 point out, the claim is a Fourteenth Amendment claim. See ECF Nos. 11 at 4-5; 47. Because 26 Naphcare does not move to dismiss this claim under the Fourteenth Amendment, I deny that 27 portion of the motion.
28

1 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that defendant Naphcare, Inc.'s motion to dismiss (ECF
2 No. 26) is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. Plaintiff Christopher Hunter's Eighth
3 Amendment deliberate indifference claim against defendant Naphcare, Inc. is dismissed with
4 prejudice. Plaintiff Christopher Hunter's Fourteenth Amendment claim against defendant
5 Naphcare, Inc. remains pending.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk of court shall correct the caption to reflect that
7 defendant Napha Healthcare is correctly identified as Naphcare, Inc.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this case is referred to the Pilot Pro Bono Program
9 ("Program") adopted in General Order 2016-02 for the purpose of screening for financial 10 eligibility (if necessary) and identifying counsel willing to be appointed as pro bono counsel for 11 plaintiff Christopher Hunter. The scope of appointment shall be for all purposes through the 12 conclusion of trial. By referring this case to the Program, the Court is not expressing an opinion
13 as to the merits of the case.

14 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk shall also forward this order to the Pro Bono
15 Liaison.

16 DATED this 6th day of July, 2017.
